Epicurean Group's Marvin Rodriguez a Finalist for CFO of the Year Award

San Jose, California (November 11, 2013) – Marvin Rodriguez, CFO and Partner, Epicurean Group, has been selected as a finalist in the Silicon Valley Business Journal's CFO of the Year awards.

The annual awards honor "a group of ... shining stars who rarely get the spotlight," said James MacGregor, publisher of the Silicon Valley Business Journal. "These awards were developed to recognize Silicon Valley financial professionals for outstanding performance in their roles as corporate financial stewards."

Rodriguez is one of two 2013 finalists in the private company category. Honorees also will be chosen in four other categories: public over $500 million; public under $500 million; venture-backed; and nonprofit.

"I'm honored to be chosen as a finalist for this prestigious award," said Rodriguez. "I'm proud to represent my company to this esteemed group of financial professionals." Epicurean Group is an independent food-service management company based in Silicon Valley that serves corporations, universities and fine arts and government facilities throughout Northern California. Rodriguez said that the nomination was particularly meaningful to him because this year is Epicurean Group's 10-year anniversary.

Winners will be announced at an awards dinner at the Computer History Museum in Mountain View on November 21, and they will be profiled in a special Silicon Valley Business Journal publication.
